

A FREE ONE-PAGE GUIDE FOR FAMILIES

Choosing senior care.

Take this with you on the tour.

Choosing a place for someone you love is hard. This single page gives you what to ask, what to watch for, and what care typically costs — so you can walk into any tour prepared.

1 Ask these questions

1. What's the staff-to-resident ratio — day and night?
2. Are caregivers direct employees, or contractors?
3. What's included in the monthly cost — and what's extra?
4. What happens if my loved one's care needs change?
5. Can I drop by unannounced for a visit?

2 Watch for these signs

- Residents are engaged — not parked in front of a TV.
- Staff greet residents by name, and aren't rushed.
- Common areas and bathrooms are clean — no masked smells.
- Call buttons are answered quickly.
- The food is something you'd actually want to eat.

● What care typically costs

Independent living

$2,500–$5,500

per month

Assisted living

$4,500–$7,000

per month

Memory care

$6,000–$9,500

per month

Nursing home

$9,000–$12,000

per month, private

In-home care

$25–$40

per hour

Adult day care

$80–$150

per day

US national averages, 2025. Help paying may come from Medicaid, VA Aid & Attendance, long-term care insurance, or life-insurance conversion. Always confirm prices with the provider.

NEED HELP CHOOSING?

Compare trusted providers near you.

Free guidance. No sales calls, no pressure. 70,000+ providers nationwide.

VISIT

olera.care

CALL

(979) 243-9801

EMAIL

support@olera.care